

Crawley Ceilidh Experience

A new fun activity is heading your way

Try something less boring on a weekday night!

Come and polish your dance skills,
learn to English Ceilidh dance with flair and expertise ...
... and go home with a smile on your face.

English Ceilidh (barn dancing) can be enjoyed by everybody.

Once a set of people have learnt the basic moves and can put a bit of swing into it, the enjoyment level goes through the roof.

The South East Folk Arts Network presents a programme of tutored dances (workshops) in Crawley, leading up to the Ceilidh at Crawley Folk Festival on Saturday 26th June.

Sessions will be at the Southgate Community Centre in March and April and are open to people of all ages and abilities.

(see overleaf for dates)

Costs: only £3 a session.

Under 26's pay nothing!!

(Supported by Arts Council England Night Less Ordinary scheme)

Supported by

Crawley Ceilidh Experience

You'll certainly have great fun at the sessions and the ceilidh dance at the Hawth

doors open 7.30

8.00 pm to 10.30 pm

Southgate Community Centre RH11 8QL

1st tutored session: Tuesday March 23.

Thereafter on Tuesdays: March 30. April 6, 13 and 20.

All dances will feature live musicians and experienced tutors/callers.

For info (and to register interest) ~ call John on 01293 537234
or email: jbyng@btinternet.com

Or just turn up on the night.

*****

And all this leads to a fantastic
Festival Ceilidh on Saturday June 26th

at the Crawley Folk Festival featuring the lively and hugely popular band

Jigalots and caller Fee Lock

Under 26s pay nothing!!

(Supported by Arts Council England Night Less Ordinary scheme)

The South East Folk Arts Network is a Registered Charity No: 1111883
www.sefan.org.uk/CCE.html